DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1 – 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The body of the claim appears to recite a methodology of inversion, binarization and filtering absent any structure for inverting/binarizing/filtering whereas the preamble is directed to an apparatus. In this sense, the claim is hybrid in nature whereas the statutes confine an invention to either one of an apparatus or a method category. Additionally the methodology is directed to manipulation of a signal as opposed to a structure set for processing thereof.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 – 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear whether the claim is an open 'comprising' or closed 'consisting of' construct, and what structure is being claimed towards the end-result of an inverted, binarized and noise-free signal.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1 – 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP2000-300555 as described in the European Search report with respect to binarizing and inverting of organ voxel data, further in view of Weng et al (US5588435). It would have been obvious in view of the latter to filter data to remove noise subsequent to binarization since morphologic filtering for example, see cols. 13 – 14, was known to better prepare an organ outline highlighted by binarization for subsequent metrizing measurements.
